Interviews for those able to start from 26th March and are available throughout April will take place during February with departmental training on weekends during March. For those applying later in the season interviews and training will take place again on weekends so applicants must be able to make themselves available for these dates.

Depending on the COVID situation interviews may be via zoom.

If we feel we have a position suitable for you then you will be invited to attend an induction day in preparation of starting work with us. You will also be invited in to take part in departmental training prior to you starting work.

If we are fully staffed at the time, we receive your application form you will be kept on hold for up to 3 months in case suitable vacancies arise.

Thank you for your interest and good luck with your application.
